Mesmerising glacial valleys, snow-capped mountains, cedar-filled forests, captivating fjords and brilliant seas.

Alaska offers the finest collection of nature's most mesmerising glacial valleys, snow-capped mountains, cedar-filled forests, captivating fjords and brilliant seas.

Day 01

Anchorage > Nome, AK

Welcome to Nome, set at the tip of the Seward Peninsula and overlooking the Bering Sea. A world of wonder awaits as you step on board and raise your glass to toast the start of your luxurious cruise.

Meals: D

Day 2

At Sea

Today, relax on your Discovery Yacht. With so many choices on board, you will be surprised how quickly time passes. Choose one of the daily activities including a class at Scenic Epicure, join an entertaining discussion in the theatre, or make time for your own fitness regime.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 3

St. Paul Island

St Paul Island in the Bering Sea lies between USA and Russia, and has a land area of just 100km² and uniquely has just one school, one post office, one bar, one shop and one church. Nature is abundant as the rugged landscape has been shaped by surrounding volcanoes and lava craters. Fauna has flourished with the region becoming well known as a breeding ground for more than 500,000 northern fur seals and millions of seabirds. Spend your day exploring the local museum and church with a local, before visiting the nearby seal colony.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 04

Dutch Harbour 🌲

One of the world's largest and most famous fishing ports, Dutch Harbour has a fascinating history. In 1942, Dutch Harbor was attacked by aerial bombardment from the Japanese. Take in the beautiful scenery of this remote and mountainous landscape much loved by tourists, and famed for its hiking, skiing, sportfishing, kayaking and wildlife.

Freechoice: Join a guided hike to a WWII Bunker, passing by numerous WWII ruins, or learn of the cultural history at the Museum of the Aleutians and visit the Aleutian World War II National Historic Area.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 5

At Sea

Enjoy a day at leisure exploring the excellent ultra-luxurious amenities of your Discovery Yacht. Try a game of bridge or canasta in the Observatory Lounge or tempt your palate at a wine tasting.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 6

Kodiak 🐻

Situated along the Gulf of Alaska, the city of Kodiak is renowned for its inhabitants of grizzly bears, national state parks and sportfishing spots. Uncover history and learn about Kodiak's key role in WWII as a staging point for US operations with Fort Abercrombie built as a defense post to protect the naval base. Renowned for its wildlife, Kodiak National Wildlife Refuge covers two thirds of the island and several nature-loving visitors each year. This is the best location to spot the salmon loving brown bear and other wildlife while taking in the majestic lakes and dramatic mountains within the national park.

Discovery: Go kayaking or stand up paddleboarding with our Discovery Team.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 7

Homer 🌲

Homer is a small city on Kachemak Bay, that packs a big punch. Take in the charming coastal city that is distinguished by its gravel bar that extends into the bay, surrounded by snow-capped mountains and glaciers.

Freechoice: Learn of the local area and see the scenic vistas of Kachemak Bay during a narrated cruise or learn about the intertidal creatures around the Homer Harbor Docks. Alternatively, explore Homer city gaining an understanding into the history and culture of this quaint community.

Discovery: Hike to Glacier Lake in Kachemak Bay State Park with a guide or go kayaking or stand up paddleboarding with our Discovery Team.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 8

Seward 🌲

Discover one of Alaska's most historic towns, Seward. This seaside village offers access to Kenai Fjords National Park and a bustling harbour. Marine life, jagged cliffs and seabirds can be found at Resurrection Bay. Take to the seas and get a chance to spot sea lions and tidewater caves. Whether it is embarking on adventurous activities such as summer-style dogsledding or strolling through the streets of the 'Mural Capital of Alaska', there is something for everyone.

Freechoice: Join a local wildlife tour, and search for whales, sea otters, sea lions and marine birds. Alternatively, choose to meet Iditarod Sled Dogs and take the chance to experience summer-style dogsledding or, zip line and rappel through a nearby rainforest.

Discovery: Hike to Exit Glacier with a local naturalist to give insight on topography, vegetation and natural habitats of a glacial environment.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 9

Cruising Hubbard Glacier

Hubbard Glacier is the longest tidewater glacier in the world, stretching 122 kilometres. This mountain of ice exemplifies the grandness of the region.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 10

Sitka 🌲

As the old capital of Alaska during the Russian empire, Sitka still has strong ties to Russia. From the battle of the indigenous people with the Russians to the establishment of St. Michael's Cathedral, North America's first orthodox cathedral, there is much history to unpack and explore. Sitka, one of the United States main fishing ports, attracts seafood enthusiasts in hoards. The picturesque landscape at Sitka National Historical Park and the wildlife of the Inside Passage is a tourist favourite where whales and Pacific salmon thrive deep below as bald eagles soar overhead.

Freechoice: Learn about the wildlife visiting the Fortress of the Bears and the Alaska Raptor Center, or experience Sitka's history during a walking tour through the Tongass National Forest. Alternatively, join a wildlife quest navigating through the narrow passages searching for local sea otters, whales, seals and more.

Discovery: Set out for a leisurely paddle to explore Sitka's sheltered waterways, harbours and picturesque coves.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 11

Kake 🌲

Discover the home of the Tlingit people in Kake, with more than 70% of the people still preserving and continuing their heritage. Connect with the locals and learn about their survival through hunting, fishing and gathering plants and berries. Get an insight into their culture as you explore the village, experiencing a carving and weaving demonstration, learning of the totem poles and watching a dance performance. Kake is a prime location for spotting whales and for bear watching during the summer when they emerge to feast on the thriving salmon population. The icy seas and thick forestland allow premium hiking trails such as Big John Bay Trail, Goose Lake Trail and Cathedral Falls Trail.

Discovery: Join our Discovery Team for a hike or kayaking adventure.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 12

Wrangell 🌲

Located near the Stikine River, Wrangell is one of the oldest towns in Alaska, with its rich history visible in the collection of totem poles scattered throughout the town. Surrounded by natural beauty and wildlife, many are attracted to the region's fauna and flora. Anan Bear and Wildlife Observatory offer a rare chance to view wildlife including brown and black bears up close, you will soon see why this is known to be the heart of the Inside Passage.

Freechoice: See the city of Wrangell on a walking tour or venture up the Stikine River on jet boat. Play a round of golf at the unique Muskeg Meadows or join a local guide for a walk through a nearby rainforest. Alternatively, learn about native artists during a hands on workshop.

Discovery: Listen to the sounds of the forest as your naturalist guide leads you on this walk through the Tongass National Forest, or embark on specially designed canoes to explore Wrangell harbour with your local guides.

Meals: B, L, D

Day 13

At Sea
